Near Richlands, Onslow county, on the 7th of August, 1868, M. S. F. GILES, in the 58th year of

The dream is over. In the soul's release O ransomed one thou hast at last found peace, And earth has taken to her sheltering breast Her weary child to rest -forever rest. res, thou art gone; and nature vainly weeps, Not that thou art free, and thy tired body sleep That death her all hast given to the sod, and that the spirit has gone home to God, But that the voice which thrilled our hearts

Is hushed forever, on earth's winding shore, And years, long years, will pass, and we shall No more on earth. Grew weary often of the secret pain, are cold, and never will be warm again.

sleep on with dust upon thy heaveless breast; sieep on, forever, stricken sleeper-rest While softly hovereth o'er thy dreamless bad, The sweet oblivion of the blessed dead. When fair-fraught shadows o'er our faint hea

And earthly trials hover dark and cold, Then we will meekly to their fierce waves bow, But, O, their billows cannot reach thee now.

And now, farewell! We leave thy hallowed dus With a sweet promise and a precious trust The earthly seed-frail mortal body dies, But incorruptible the germ shall rise. father, we miss thee here; our earthly home is dark without thee, and we'd gladly come To live with thee, where thou hast gone to dwell. But as thou willest, Saviour, father, dear name, Wilmington District.

	4ти во	UND.
Macmolia circuit	Bryans		Sep	t 12-1:
Magnolia circuit	McGee's			19-20
Kenansville "	Charity.		44	26-27
Wilmington, Fifth	Street.		Oct	3
onslow Queen's (lreek		4.4	10-11
Whitesville Swin	lie's		5.4	17-18
Cokeabury Halls				24-2
				31 Nov 1
Bladen (Sout R. Miss.)	0111 27 193520	*25/00/15/00/1		21 1404 3
Sout It. alins. 1			Mor	. 7
Elizabeth	65127571 633		NO	7-3
Smithville /	21 111 PRO-		98	14-15
Brunswick (
Topasil		1222000		21-22
Wilmington Front	Street			28-29
A	SSESSM	ENTS.
	CON. COL	E'PS.	FUND	DR. DOUB
Magnolia	$30 00	$12	50	$ 8 00
Clinton		12	50	8 00
Kenansville		12	50	8 00
Wil Fifth Street	37 50	15	00	10 00
Onslow		18	75	12 00
Whitesville		18
TEACHER OF TAXABLE PARTY OF THE	10000	12.20		And the second of 30 00 S CO Brunswick.... 12 00 75 00Wil Front Street. The brethren will please give special attention to each of the above claims. Let there be no deficiency. God hath blessed us with bountiful harvests. Let us honor Him with our substance.

18 75

12 50

I., S. BURKHEAD, P. E.

12 00

8 00

oldest Tobacco House in Wilmington, HENRY BURKHEIMER,

45 00

45 00

W HOLESALE Dealer in TOBACCO, SNUFF and CIGARS, Sign of the "Indian Chief," No. 6 Market &

WILMINGTON, N. C.

MARRIAGE GUIDE.

DEING A PRIVATE INSTRUCTOR FOR address: D married persons or those about to be married both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexnal system, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. WUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language book. It discloses secrets that every one should be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cents.— Continental Congress as the National flag Address, Da. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spre Infant Republic

Milmington

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 18, 1868.

VOL. 24.

From the Newbern Journal of Commerce, 9th. The Procession and Flag Presentation

Yesterday. The much talked of, thought of, and read it was one of the finest displays of the kind | sor. ever witnessed in the good old State of North Carolina—a generous outpouring of Let tyrants, when they see it, quake and cower. the people, to do honor to the choice of the nation next November.

At an early hour in the morning the people began pouring into the city. Every train of cars, wagons, buggies and conveyances of all kinds helped to swell the throng, until at the hour when the procession was to be formed the city presented a most animated appearance.

The bone and sinew of the county and district were here to be seen, all fired with enof their candidates.

two and three thousand of our citizens sentation was to take place.

cupy the post of honor. It is necessary to honor to them all, say we. read the list of ladies borne upon the car to form any correct idea of this neantiful spectacle: Misses Mary E. Roberts, Lisette Bell, Mary Duffy, Dora Pool, Losa Biddle, Fettie E. Guion, Kate Carraway, Vene Carraway, Fannie Disosway, Mary White- Democratic and Conservative Convention hurst, Mary Dunn, Lizzie Oliver, Hannah Clark, Florence Pearce, Mattie Matthews. Hannah Osgood, J. Perry, J. Holland, Harriet Medows, Lebby Clark, Susie Gardner, Laura Johnson, Lida Sumrill, P. Bailey, Gertrude Baxter, Ella Radcliff, Jennie Miller, H. Miller, C. Boesser, Lucy Beale, Bettie Thomas, Lizzie Howland, — Eck-

Henrietta Holland. Following this magnificent pageant was the streamer, carried by about two hundred young Missses, which made an exceedingly fine appearance. The little ones entered into the spirit evinced by their more mature companions, and manifested their delight by hearty cheering, and other demonstrations. Then came hundreds of matrons and young ladies of the city, and after them the different Clubs with their banners and mottoes, making the longest and largest procession ever seen upon the city streets. Flags were flying from the windows of the houses in the line of march, handkerchiefs waving, cheer upon cheer pealing forth, and the utmost delight evidenced. assembled in front of the Club House when the presentation took place. Major John | ful, good humored, gentlemanly company, Hughes, in presenting Miss Mary Guion, and sincerely hope they may be well who was to tender the flag to the Seymour | enough pleased with the country to come She was received by the immense throng | are cheap throughout the State. with unbounded enthusiasm and admira-

-"Ne'er did Grecian chisel trace A nymph, a maid, or a grace,

Miss Guion then delivered the following

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Seymour and Blair Club of Craven County: I have the honor, on behalf of the ladies of our city, to present to your body this beautiful flag-the emblem of our nationality. On the 1st day of January, 1776for the general reader, and is illustrated with nu- more than ninety-two years ago-this, the merous Engravings. All young married people, flag of the Union, with thirteen stars and or those contemplating marriage, and having the thirteen stripes, was unfurled at Camleast impediment to married life, should read this bridge, amidst the rattle of musketry and be acquainted with; still it is a book that must | the roar of artillery, and, on the 14th day be locked up and not lie about the house. It will of June, 1776, the same was adopted by the her standard to the air;

e azure robe of night

stars of glory there.

with its gorgeous dyes

Infant Republic.

dric of the skies. pure, celestial white of the morning light mansion in the sun agle-bearer down. the stripes of "pure nd blood-red "streak vhite-winged peace and have been increased and now, upon the thirty-seven stars of the world the wonnt spectacle of a cony-seven States, whose mits extend from the Freedom, from her mountain height,

are perverted by ambitious | "Gentlemen" pass. ilers from their true object

Plated Ware, Cutlery, Fine Jewelry, Sewing Machines, de., comprising nothing but useful articles wanted in every family, for One Dollar Each, which cannot be purchased in any retail store for roes who bore it so gallantly and successfully, now living only in story and song-Our inducements to Agents are greater than and we will cherish the hope, with an abiany other House in the Trade. Send for descriptive checks in Clubs of Ten for $1, Thirty for $3, ding confidence in the wise disposition of ance of our citizens, liked to turn out seritive checks in Clubs of Ten for $1, Thirty for $3, Fifty for $5, larger ones in the same ratio. Cir- events, that as it was of yore, so will it be ever in the future, an emblem of protec peared to be intoxicated, was growling to culars, giving full information, sent free of charge. clubs, and receive in return for the same, Dress tion, alike to the strong and the feeble, Conservative element of our common coundaring the white man out of his buggy, ed a large and enthusiastic crowd. Speechtry, do the wives and daughters of liberty- saying he would "maul" him black in five es were made in the streets in several quarloving patriots throughout the length and minutes. Police Pearsell came to the spot, ters and the greatest enthusiasm was breadth of our vast domain, look for relief demanded silence, which had the effect appparent. in this hour of our nation's peril, expect- to make the negro more furious, especiing and demanding that you will stand ally when he saw that the police would ING BUSINESS, I would be glad to work forth manfully and fearlessly in the defence make no attempt to arrest him. In the for all my old friends. I will continue to sell, of freedom, and by strong and united efforts meantime a large crowd of citizens and was called to order by T. J. Curtis, Esq., with their patronage. Persons sending me their place the sceptre of Executive power in also a gang of negro ruffians, mostly sol- of Cumberland, former Mayor of Fayette-PRODUCE will receive prompt personal attention.

W. M. MONROE.

W. M. MONROE.

W. M. MONROE.

William of Horatio Seymour, of New Walter L. Steele, of Richmond, as tempoward was momently expected, and as before Walter L. Steele, of Richmond, as tempoward was momently expected. York, and Francis P. Blair, of Missouri, was momently expected, and as before Walter L. Steele, of Richmond, as tempothereby averting the dire calamity of a con- stated, nothing but the forbearance of our rary Chairman. The election of Colonel > of their radical opponents. Then, gentlemen, be up and doing-let been drawn to their windows by the dis- importance of the work before them.

of flag presentation by the ladies of this our Great Republic, and millions of voices proceed to their camp, undisturbed and tary, with the addition of M. J. McSween, city, to the Seymour and Blair Central Club | will shout paeans of thanksgiving for the unmolested. "The police said be had no Esq., of the Fayetteville Eegle, as another sub-Electors for each county into consideration. of Craven county, came off yesterday .- safe deliverance of a great, suffering peo- authority to arrest soldiers." Is such the Secretary. The event bears us out in the assertion that ple from the rod of the tyrant and oppres- peace we may expect should Grant be

We trust it to you -let it to the mast be nailed, And may your answer be, that Seymour has pre-

The flag was received in behalf of the Club by Mr. M. DeW. Stevenson, in a most eloquent and beautiful address, which we are compelled to omit for want of space .-EDS. JOURNAL.

remarks the flag was run up to the mast tions are all that could be desired. thusiasm and inspired with the hope and head amid the greatest excitement, enthualmost certainty of the triumphant election | siasm and joy, cheer rose upon cheer, and cheer again, hands were shaken, hand-The procession was formed in front of kerchiefs waved, and many other exhibithe Masenic Hall, at 4 o'clock, P. M., in tions of delight were shown. The audithe order heretofore published. Between ence then slowly and reluctantly dispersed. For the most magnificent flag-pole in the were in it, but a great number proceeded | State, the club is indebted, under the genat once to the Club House where the pre- eral superintendence of Mr. J. J. Robert- son went to see the magistrate, who com-The most noticeable feature of this large | tendence of Mr, Thos. H. Howard, assist- Grimes, under the charge of arson (burnand imposing affair was the truck of the ed by Messrs. James and Samuel Howard. ing Mr. Zeno H. Greere's barn), and in-Atlantic Fire Company, completely covered | The work is highly creditable to Mr. Howard | sisted upon a re-hearing of the case. He with the national colors, arranged in the who refused all compensation either for la- was met with the proper reply that he had side. most tasteful array. On it was erected a bor or material. For the Club House it is about as much to do with that court as did beautiful canopy and seats for thirty-seven | indebted to Mr. Fred. Lane, of the firm of | the Emperor of France, and he had better young ladies. These young ladies, among Lane & Pavie, who was ably assisted by learn the difference between North Carothem the most lovely maidens of the city, Messrs. Samuel John Lane, James Hancock | lina reconstructed and North Carolina unwere placed on the triumphal car and borne and Edward Pavie. Mr. Lane and his as- der the domination of Freedmen's Bureau in the procession by numbers of our pat- sistants also refused to receive any com- men and petty military officers ! riotic young men, vieing who should oc- pensation for time, labor or material. All

STATE NEWS.

EIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The ed all the proceedings.

Col. Livingston Brown. of Caswell, was enwalter, Mary Barrow, Kate Washington, and accepted-promising an active canintellect, high character and great popuacceptable to the true men of the District. M. S. Robins, Esq., of Randolph, was chosen as the candidate for Elector. He will enter with energy and ability upon the campaign. The selection is, everyway, an excellent one. - Ral. Sentinel, 10th. Welcome Visitors.-We were highly gratified Monday on meeting at the Boyden House, Mr. Daniel Dechert, of the "Hagerstown Mail." in company with twenty Marylanders and Pennsylvanians mostly farmers, on their way to Mecklenburg, to look at the lands in that county, Salisbury Old North State.

RENOMINATED.—Col. David Heaton was renominated for Congress yesterday, by the Radical District Convention, at Goldsboro'. They could not have made a better nomination, though we trust he will be badly defeated. - Newbern Jour. of Com.

NASH AND EDGECOMBE COUNTIES--A gentleman from the county of Nash informs us that everything there is working with a smoothness that guarantees the county going largely Democratic. A terrible revolution is also being made in Edgecombe.

addressed a large concourse of the citizens His speech was a most masterly one.

with their prisoner.

Goldsboro' Rough Notes.

OUTRAGES, -A gentleman was shoved off etual snow, to the peace- gang of lawless negro soldiers. Another hospitality of the citizens, and to prepare this great government | crowd of these "veterans" assaulted a litfits, when administered the white boy who was selling apples on shment of individual power saulted on yesterday evening by a gang of modating between five and eight hundred s. And when partizan malice | negro ruffians 'so-called Union leaguers,' persons. For days past the ladies with usurp the throne of reason and | who happened to be in town, to represent | skillful bands had been at work, endeavorare the blessings and benefits the mongrel party of Craven county, in the Tanners convention. They succeeded blight of National tyranny. This in tearing a Seymour and Blair badge off labors was strikingly apparent. Beautiful

ous. It seems that a white man, who ap-

which threatens to spread over an entire wards the citizens, daring them to fight, mington Journal, was made temporary and no more, as it has members of the lower country and engulf us in one common ruin. and threatening that they would call out Secretary. Elevate the unanimous choice of the great | their companies and line this town with party of freedom to the highest position in blood, these scoundrels were permitted to nent President, and John C. James, Secre-PEACE. -Goldsboro' Rough Notes.

FOURTH DISTRICT-OUR NOMINEES,-We learn by telegram, received last night, that the District Convention which met in Franklin on yesterday, nominated the Hon. Sion H. Rogers, of Wake, as the Democratic and Conservative candidate for Congress, and Col. Wharton J. Green, of Waren, for Elector. We have only time After the conclusion of Mr. Stevenson's to say, this morning, that these nomina-

We learn that the Convention was large, harmonious and enthusiastic-every county in the District having been fully represented.-Raleigh Sentinel, 11th inst.

One of Holden's magistrates in Wilson does his duty. He will probably be removed at once. The Bureau man in Wilson, to the personal efforts and superin- mitted the negro President of the League. Raleigh Sentinel, 11th.

RADICAL JUSTICE.—Henry Wynn, negro, a newly made juryman, who certainly can boast of having more wool than brains, showed his qualifications as a Juror, in our Superior Court of law on yesterday. Wynn was one of the Jurors empannelled to try a for this Disfrict, (at present represented negro. The case was very simple, and the viously been convinced. The evidence concluded, the case was given to the jury, nominated as the candidate for Congress eleven of whom, after a short private consultation went for conviction, Wynn, howvass. Col. Brown is a gentleman of fine ever, felt for his brother negro, and went against conviction, defined his position larity, and his nomination will be most thus boldly—he said he did not acknowledge Judge, lawyers or law, whenever he should be on a Jury, that he always followed his own mind, that if the prisoner was guilty he thought God would have convinced his mind as to that: but in this case his mind told him that the defendant was piest style. His speech was quite lengthy not guilty. And such is Justice. Goldsboro' Rough Notes, 10th.

THE FAYETTEVILLE CONVENTION.

Taking passage on board the steamer Governor Worth, with the delegates from New Hanover to the District Convention, More than three thousand persons were with a view to purchasing for farming pur- our reporter left the city Tuesday afternoon ing practical points and arguments well test in which we are engaged in this District and poses. We have rarely met a more cheer- for Fayetteville, to note for the benefit of adapted to the common sense and reasoning our readers the proceedings of the largest and most enthusiasti. Convention and Mass and Blair Club in behalf of the ladies, paid a down and settle with us. We have room Meeting ever held for any District in North glowing and highly merited tribate to her. for them and for all that may come. Lands Carolina. The passage was safe and speedy, the steamer arriving with the delegation at the landing in Fayetteville early Wednesday morning. The North Carolina, with a large Bladen and Brunswick delegaon board, was passed on the tion river the night previous, and soon also safely arrived. joined in with the New Hanover crowd, the arrival of the Sampson delegation on horseback. The procession then took up Bladen-J. W. Purdie, D. Cromartie; Anits line of march for the Market House. On the way it was met and received by the The people in these counties are hard at Fayetteville firemen, who also joined in, making the procession about half a mile GEN. GORDON.—This eminent Georgian long, and numbering many hundred. The Robeson and Richmond delegations arrived about the same time from another of Mecklenburg, at Charlotte, on Tuesday. direction, overland, and the spacious Market Square was speedily crowded to its ful-RADICAL OUTRAGE. -On yesterday our lest extent. The town was by this time police succeeded in arresting a negro, who thoroughly alive, the citizens turning out en masse. The several delegations were stands charged in Edgecombe county with then welcomed by Hon. Thos. C. Fuller, larceny, and for whose capture, we learn, of Cumberland, on behalf of the citizens a reward has been offered by the authority and committee of Reception, in a neat and of that county. No sooner had the police tasty speech delivered from the verandah effected the arrest when a gang of lawless on the east side of the Market House. Neat "Union Leaguers" regular delegates to and merited compliments were paid to the the mongrel district convention, from the several counties and their delegations, city of Newbern, endeavored to liberate the meeting with the heartiest cheers from the prisoner from the grasp of the officers. - vast assembly. Colonel A. A. McKoy, of In this, however, they were disappoint- Sampson, on behalf of the various delegaed, and the police came off victorious tions, responded to the welcome extended through the gentleman from Cumberland. His speech was appropriate and forcible, exciting much enthusiasm, and drawing forth repeated applause. At its conclusion the sidewalk on yesterday morning by a the assembly dispersed to partake of the for the Convention.

ciples upon which it was founders; so does it in miseries when those his not getting off the pavement to let Hall, in which the delegates were to as- tion at Raleigh on the 13th of August last. Gus Bryan, a colored Democrat, was as semble. This Hall is capable of accomst, as it should, be typical of it up so easy, and he prepared for a fight, when, with the assistance, of some gentlewhen size was strikingly apparent. Beautiful of his coat, but Gus was not going to give festoons and wreathes of evergreen adornit up so easy, and he prepared for a fight, when, with the assistance, of some gentlewhen, with the assistance, of some gentlemen, he succeeded in getting back the fully over the platform erected for the accommodation of the officers and as a speaker's stand. On the walls the names of the A disturbance occurred on yesterday several counties embraced in the District evening at the corner of Messrs. J. H. & were displayed within beautiful wreaths. J. C. Privetts' between a negro soldier and Flags were also tastefully arranged

In all parts of the town before the Conhimself, while preparing his buggy to go vention met, the streets were alive with home, when a negro soldier of company people. At Liberty Point, near the Hall, woolen Carpet, Sewing Machine, Web of Cotton, and various other valuables, in proportion to the size of the club. Address

To you, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Club, as the representatives of the great him a d—white S——, at the same time was going on. Capt. W. S. Norment, of Robeson, there address-

IN THE CONVENTION.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock, and solidated despotism, and the perpetual en- citizens prevented it. The negro soldiers, Steele was carried unanimously, and on slavement of ten sovereign States which we believe would result from the election "C," behaved in a most shameful manner mitted a few remarks, thanking them for in the presence of many ladies, who had the compliment paid him, and urging the

On motion, Col Steele was made perma-

On motion of J. H. Roberts, of Cumberelected? Then give us Seymour and land, the delegates from each county represented were requested to recommend a mittee. suitable person as Vice-President from their several counties. Eleven of the twelve counties composing the District were represented, the county of Montgomery being the only one having no representation in the Convention. It was impossible to arrive at the correct number of delegates present, but the estimate exhibited the presence of between 1,000 and 1,200. It being apparent that all the delegates could not gain admission to the Hall, and a statement to this effect having been made, Col. Robt. Strange, of New Hanover, such as should represent them in the Convention. Col. W. McL. McKay, of Cumberland, suggested that many members of the several tute. delegations were assembling without hearing speeches. Col. Strange then substituted for his previous motion, that speakers be sent from the Convention to address those out-Col. E. D. Hall, of New Hanover, by request, was appointed by the Chair to address the people at the Railroad shed, and in compliance with his appointment, departed on the mission and delivered a telling and forcible address.

Col. Strange moved the appointment of a committee consisting of two delegates from each county, to draft resolutions for the action of the Convention, and also to nominate a Vice President from each county. The motion was carried, and the Chairman made the appointment of this committee as follows; Harnett—Dr. Jno. McCormick, Col. A. S. McNeill; Brunsby Mr. Nash,) assembled at Greensboro', evidence before the Court left no doubt of wick-D. C. Allen, Benj. Bryant; Ansonon Tuesday. Every county was represent- the defendant's guilt, besides one of the James Wright, J. A. McAllister; Columou Tuesday. Every county was represented, except Surry and Stanly, and great enthusiasm and the finest feeling characterizing of all the presentation of the parties implicated in the same offence, who happened to be a white man, had just previously been convinced. The evidence Richmond—J. W. Leak, J. G. Blue; New Hanover—Robert Strange, E. D. Hall Moore-W. D. Harrington, W. McIver Sampson-J. A. Oates, D. A. Holmes; Bladen—Thos. H. Sutton, R. M. Devane Robeson-W. Foster French, D. S. Mor-

> Loud cries for "Dobbin, Dobbin," then went up from several parts of the Hall.— In response to this call Capt. Jas. C. Dobbin, of Cumberland, appeared on the stage and addressed the Convention in his hapand was full of that poetic thought, fine phrases and beautiful expressions for which he is so noted. At the conclusion of this effort, Hon. O.

P. Meares, of New Hanover, was called for, and, on motion to that effect, addressed the Convention. The effort was one of supe rior worth and merit. It was argumentative and able, well expressed, and containof the whole people of the State.

Capt. Benj. Robinson, of Cumberland, followed, by invitation, and entertained the Convention for some time in a speech delivered in fine style. On motion of Capt. Robinson, a com-pointed on Business and Nominations, Therefore, which the Chair constituted as follows: Harnett-Anson Parker, Dr. H. M. Furner; Cumberland—A. McLean, Benj. Robinson; New Hanover-Sol. Haas, T. J. Armstrong; Brunswick-Sam'l Hall, Jos. Green; Columbus-A. J. Troy. -Harrell; Moore-H. Turner, Jno. Morrison; Richmond-H. C. Wall, A. Johnson; District, and to the whole State. We earnestly which was soon materially strengthened by Robeson—A. W. Fuller, J. H. McEachern; Sampson-A. J. Daniel, M. J. Faison son-A. H. Richardson, E. Simmons. 3 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION. At the appointed hour the Convention assembled and was called to order by the

Col. Strange, in behalf of the committee to nominate Vice-Presidents and prepare resolutions for the action of the Convention, reported the following nomina- uments, and to exert their influence and to breadth of this land, the good people of tions, which were confirmed, and the gen- use all lawful and honorable means to cause a tlemen chosen Vice-Presidents requested to take their seats upon the stage :

Harnett-A. D. McLean. Moore-D. B. McIver. Anson-J. M. Little. Richmond-J. S. McQueen. Robeson-W. S. Norment. Bladen-J. W. Purdie. Columbus-A. J. Troy. Brunswick-Salter Lloyd. New Hanover-S. R. Bunting. Sampson-R. C. Holmes. Cumberland-W. C. Troy. This committee, through Col. Strange, also submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted: The delegates from the Third Congressional District of North Carolina, assembled in Convention at Fayetteville, do

Resolve 1st, That they do cordially accept the the nomination of Horatio Seymour, of New York, for President, and Francis P. Blair, of Missouri, for Vice President, recognizing in them statesmen of the old school, whose sound political principles afford the only hope of re-establishing and perpetuating Constitutional Liberty upon its true and lasting foundations. Resolved 3d, That under the Constitution of the United States, the powers not therein delegress, which is not provided for in the Federal Constitution, is a usurpation upon the reserved ma of extra-constitutional laws, which are held to be binding, although passed in pursuance of no known or recognized authority under the plea of he could make them. an emergency not contemplated by the framers of the Constitution." Resolved 4th, That while we regard the series of measures known as the Reconstruction Acts of Congress as unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, we earnestly desire, and anticipate none other than a peaceable solution of our present political difficulties, and for relief from the wrongs and grievances under which the South. and indeed the whole country is suffering from the unconstitutional legislation of Congress, we make an appeal to the judgment, patriotism and discriminating justice of the American people. The Committee on Business and Nominations next proceeded to report, and through Capt. Robinson, of Cumberland, submitted the following: We, the Committee on Business and Nominations, have the honor to recommendately to the election of a candidate for Elector for this District on the Presidential ticket. Second-That this Convention should nominate a candidate to represent this Congressional District in the 41st Congress of the United States. and that the Convention proceed to the election of a candidate immediately after the nomination of an Elector.

Iournal.

NO. 32.

House of the North Carolina Legislature. Fourth-That in these elections the two-thirds rule shall govern in the choice of candidates Fifth-It is further suggested, that this Con-

The Convention proceeded to the consideration, seriatim, of the recommendations contained in the report of the Com-

The first, regarding the election of an Elector was at once concurred in. The second, concerning the nomination of a candidate for Congress, elicited lengthy and warm discussion. The following substitute was submitted by Wm. Alderman, of Cumberland : Resolved, That this Convention appoint a Committee of two from each county in the District, to take into consideration the nomination of a can- trict. lidate for Congress, and that time be given them to announce the result of their deliberations; and that they meet at such time as they may agree among themselves. Speeches were made by Col. McLean and Colonel Spears, of Harnett, Captain Robinmoved a recess of five minutes to enable son and Mr. Curtis, of Cumberland, and the delegates to select from their number Colonel Hall, of New Hanover, in favor of tion were tendered to the ladies of Fayberland, and others in favor of the substi-

> After a prolonged discussion, the substi ute was withdrawn and the recommendation of the report adopted.

> The remainder of the report, and then as a whole, was adopted after being amended so as to give to those counties entitled to but one vote, two in this election.

Captain James C. Dobbin, of Cumberland, was then unanimously nominated as Presidential Elector for the Third Congressional District.

The Convention proceeded with the nomination of a candidate to represent this District in the Forty-first Congress, when Col. Robert Strange, of New Hanover, received the nomination of the Convention.

On motion of Col. Morrison, of Moore, committee of five was appointed to inform Captain Dobbin and Colonel Strange of their respective nominations, of which committee Colonel Morrison was made Chairman. On motion, the President then proceeded ounty, which he announced as follows Anson-R. T. Bennett, L. L. Pope.

New Hanover-C. W. McClammy, S. A. Brunswick-J. D. Taylor, D. C. Allen.

Richmond-H. C. Wall, Arch'd Johnson.

in this State, depends upon the promulgation of evinced in the management of our national, and State and local affairs, by a more thorough and complete system of organization, so that every voter in the State may possess, before the day of election of Seymour and Blair. election, a sufficient understanding of the nature mittee of two from each county was ap- and importance of the result of the contest .-

Be it resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention, that as the most certain and effective mode of reaching the ears of the people, and causes did not speak, but the major porof awakening in their minds a full understanding and appreciation of the nature of the issues and the importance of the results of this campaign, the following system of organization should be adopted and vigorously maintained throughout the canvass, as applicable to this Congressional recommend that there shall be timmediately formed in every county of the District, and o the State, where the same has not already been done, a County Club, and that it shall be the duty of the Presidents of all such Clubs forthwith to The Convention then took a recess until appoint a County Executive Committee, consisting of at least two members from each District of the County, and it shall be the duty of the County Executive Committee forthwith to cause to be County, and it shall be the duty of the Presidents of these District Clubs to appoint a District Executive Committee to be composed of at least six residents of each District, whose duty it shall be to ascertain the name and place of residence of every voter in the District, and full registration of the Democratic voters of their | Fayetteville were unceasing in their attenmake all proper challenges, and to use all lawful means of preventing and punishing all frauduperson, both white and colored, who shall be ville and its noble people feelings of the on the day of election, and to use all lawful means of preventing fraud on the part of the poll-hold- country. rs and of the voters; and, as one of the means furnishing to the voters of each District the opportunity of acquiring political information of arousing and of awakening, on their part, a pro- setts, on his way to New York on one of per appreciation of the importance of the issues the Hudson River boats, recently, made the involved, it shall be the duty of the Presidents of the District Clubs to call frequent meetings where addresses shall be delivered, and the interests of seemed much interested in him, and who the country discussed.

Capt. Dobbin then came forward and gated to the Federal Government are reserved accepted the nomination of Elector, thankto the States respectively, or to the people of the States; therefore, any act of the Federal Con-extended. He said that he was not vain enough to believe that it was done in comrights of the States and the people, and we do ut- pliment to himself, but he took it in honterly reject, as directly tending to the destruction or to one whose name he bore. Believing of the Constitution, the new and dangerous dog- this, his efforts to appreciate it, and do service in the campaign would be all that

On motion the Convention then adjourned.

SEC ND DAY. The Convention assembled again at o'clock Thursday morning, and was called to order by the President.

Col. Strange came forward and declined the nomination for Congress. He expressand that he was not in the Convention at sible to the great compliment paid him, and regretted that he could not accept .-But there were many reasons why he could not, among which was that his honor would be involved by the acceptance. He First-That this Convention proceed immedialso stated that on the morning of the with its entire contents, was destroyed by present when the nomination was made, on the South Carolina Railroad.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

1 square, of 10 lines or less, for each and every

Special Notices will be charged $200 per square reach and every insertion. All Obituaries and private publications of every character, are charged as advertisements. 85 No advertisement, reflecting upon private character, can, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, be man of his delegation, he much regretted. but it was due to an unfortunate misunderstanding of the time of holding the afternoon session.

vention take the matter of the appointment of He then proceeded to detial other reasons which actuated him in declining, and begged that support would be given to some one else, and that in that support we should not regard merely the personal popularity of the man-principles, not men, are what we are striving for, As the first business then in order the President called on the Convention to nominate a candidate in the stead of Col.

Col. A. A. McKoy, of Sampson, was then unanimously nominated, by acclamation, as the candidate for Congress from this Dis-Messrs. E. Peterson, of Sampson, S. A.

Ashe, of New Hanover, and Jas. Wright. of Anson, were appointed a committee to wait upon Col. McKoy and inform him of his nomination. On motion, the thanks of the Conventhe report, and Hon. Thomas C. Fuller etteville for the beautiful and tasteful manand Colonel Wm. McL. McKoy, of Cum- ner in which they had decorated the Hall. On motion of Col. Strange, the thanks of the Convention were tendered the President and officers for the able and efficient manner in which they had discharged their duties.

> This was acknowledged by the President, Col. Steele, in an appropriate manner. He then proceeded to address the Convention in an able and effective speech. eliciting repeated applause.

> Col. Jno. G. Blue, of Richmond, being called for, also spoke at some length, making a good impression and doing credit to both his head and heart.

> The committee appointed to inform Col. McKoy of his nomination reported through Capt. S. A. Ashe, that they had waited upon the gentleman and that he had requested two or three days to consider the matter. It was understood that his letter of acceptance would probably soon appear.

This great, enthusiastic District Convention then adjourned sine die.

THE PROCESSION.

Wednesday night one of the grandest to appointed two sub-Electors for each processions ever witnessed in this State good Democrats of the town had been indefatigable in their preparations, and the arrangements were skillfully executed. Many large and beautiful transparencies were Robeson-W. Foster French, W. S. Nor- displayed, among which was one as magnificient as ever seen in the State. From this principal transparency, which was drawn Moore-W. B. Harrington, J. D. McIver. on wheels, fireworks were almost continu-Montgomery-J. H. Montgomery, Jesse ally fired. These were in keeping with the magnificience of the transparency. Large, beautiful and aspiring rockets rapidly rent Cumberland-J. W. Baker, T. C. Fuller. the air; Roman candles were fired with Harnett-Dr. John T. McLean, D. McN. spirit, and all the ingenius contrivances that the fertile brains of manufacturers have Sampson-Dr. A. Holmes, Dr. C. T. suggested were displayed. The Fire Companies and hundreds belonging to the dele-Bladen-T. D. McDowell, T. H. Sutton. gations of the several counties were in line. Judge Meares introduced the following while thousands through the streets and esolutions, which were adopted by the accompanied the procession, among them hundreds of fair and beautiful ladies, many WHEREAS, The success of our party in the con- of whom were in carriages. It had the appearance of a triumphal march, and God our principles and the exposure of the unconstitutional, tyrannical, unjust, corrupt and oppres. of those grand and glorious demonstrations sive acts and doctrines of the Radical party, as which will celebrate the success of the cause of truth, the triumph of justice and right, the victory over evil-in a word, the

> The following was the programme of speaking agreed upon and carried out as near as possible on such occasions. A few of the gentlemen named from unavoidable

At Liberty Point-Cols. A. A. McKoy, of Sampson, W. F. French, of Robeson. Exchange Hotel-D. C. Allen, of Brunswick, T. H. Sutton of Bladen. J. C. Haigh's residence-J. C. Dobbin, of Cumberland. Union Square-Samuel S. Ashe, of New Hanover. Dobbin House-W. S. Norment, of Robeson. W. C. Troy's residence-Hon. T. C. Fuller, of Cumberland. E. F. Moore's residence -H. C. Wall, of Richmond. H. L. Myrover's residence—A. M. Waddell, of New Hanover, Fayetteville Hotel—Col., W. L. Steele, of Richmond. J. W. Strange's residence-Robt. Strange, of New Hanover. Campbeilton-John G. Blue, of Richmond. A. A. McKethan's residence

—J. D. Mclver, of Moore. THE HOSPITALITY OF FAYETTEVILLE.

True to the character which has always renenrol the same in a book to be kept for dered the earlier inhabitants of the Cape that purpose, and to circulate political doc- Fear region noted through the length and District, and particularly to attend at the place tions, unbounded in their hospitality, unappointed for the registration of voters, and to rivalled in their efforts to show kindness to our delegates. The recipients of these lent cases of registration, and to make out a list kind attentions will never cease to remember of the names and places of residence of every them, and will ever bear towards Fayette registered, and immediately after the registration highest gratitude and regard. As the completed, to furnish a copy of said list of registered voters of their District to each one of the us all, they wish them happiness, peace and several District committees in their counties, and security in the election of Seymour and it shall be their duty, also, to attend at the polls Blair, the only peace candidates of the acquaintance of a lady of middle age, who at length told him that he greatly resem-Resolved, That we recommend this system of bled a son of hers who had died not long organization as the surest mode if, indeed, it be not the only one, by which that degree of energy and zeal can be developed which is absolutely him an urgent invitation to call at a certain Resolved 2d, That they do unanimously ratify necessary to our success, and with an abiding number in New York, which he promised confidence that, if the system be promptly adop- to do. On arriving at the place appointed ted and vigorously executed throughout the he found that it was not the residence of State, it will lead to a decisive victory in November next; and we, therefore, earnestly appeal to his fellow-traveler, but of a friend of hers, our party leaders, newspaper editors, and the who had a daughter of engaging appear Presidents of the various Clubs, and to the whole | ance, but apparently in ill health. This party, throughout the State, to give it their un- young lady, it appears, was the betrothed of the young man who was dead. Owing to his striking resemblance to the deceased lover, our friend from Berkville was received with great cordiality, and was ur gently invited to call again, which he did and before he left the city he was engaged to be married to the young lady. Shortly after returning to his home, word came that his affianced, whose health was greatly impaired, was much worse, and he returned to the city and remained with her until her death. This young lady had about $13,000 in her own right, and during her sickness, with the free consent of her parents, she bequeathed it all to her intended, and he has since come into full possession of the entire amount in Government bonds .-Being a poor young man, of excellent habed his regret that he had been nominated its, this legacy will undoubtedly be of great use to him, though it can poorly compensate for the loss of one to whom he had the time to prevent it. He was not insen- become so deeply attached under such peculiar circumstances.

A young man from Western Massachu

Springfield Republican.

Incendiarism. The dwelling of Mr. James Burnside Convention a cancus of the delegates fire on Friday night last. Mr. Burnside from his county was held, and it was then has been particularly unfortunate; he has agreed that New Hanover should nominate | been repeatedly robbed, and to cap the Col. McKoy; that he (Col. S.) had been ap- climax his house has been reduced to pointed Chairman of the delegation to cast | ashes. Mr. Burnside's residence was loits vote for Col. McKoy. That he was not cated about seven miles from Columbia,

Columbia Phoenic,

Yacht races are becoming very popular

TAVING RESUMED THE TIMBER INSPECT-Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 4th, 1868.

NOTICE.

Parties desirous of acting as Agents will send in AUSTIN & CO.

106 SUMMER ST. BOSTON, MASS.

in the South.

New York city expended $3,020,832 for your labor be consistent and zealous—turbance. With pistols drawn, and using chool purposes last year, spare noeffort to check the tide of tyrangy, the most abusive and black language to-turband, John C. James, of the Wil-turband, James, James, James, James, James, James, James, James, James, school purposes last year.